MATTERS ARISING

019/2020 - VE Day Bank Holiday on 8th May 2020

Councillors discussed a potential community event to mark this, deciding on an afternoon tea dance at Criggion Village Hall with funds raised to go to a forces charity perhaps Royal British Legion. Cllr Burrowes has details of some 40s music but was unable to attend this meeting due to the flooding.

Suggested production of a flyer to advertise, dropped in at as many local houses as possible in the whole community area, asking for RSVP for numbers. Suggestion of £10 per ticket? Also, to advertise the event in The Bridge. Tea to be prepared by members of the Council and other helpers.

Actions

Cllr Mrs F Davies to Book the Village Hall to cover an event from 3-6pm

Clerk to check dates for adding items to The Bridge in case the next meeting is too late

Further details to be finalised at next Council meeting

PLANNING

020/2020 - 20/0083/FUL Proposal: Concrete slurry store partly, above ground, with a portal frame agricultural roof. Site Address: Severn House, Back Lane, Criggion, Shrewsbury SY5 9BE

Cllr Alun Lloyd outlined the changes required to extend capacity and meet new regulations coming in the next few years, then left the meeting. Councillors discussed the application.

Resolution : - Council resolved to support this application.
